www.joyful-transitions.com

Joyful Transitions was started after helping my aunt for many years, including her transition to a skilled nursing facility; and coordinating the transition of my mother from Grand Junction to Aurora, Colorado (a 250-mile transition). I know the sorrows, the stresses, and the joys of transitioning from a personal perspective. I have been involved with the difficult decisions associated with transitioning – when to transition, what to keep, what to give away and to whom, who is reliable with moving and other logistics. The expertise comes from making these decisions while focusing on the loved one and their desires. We can help the physically challenged and older baby-boomers transition “at the speed of excellence and compassion!”
